5. Each item checked above must be explained below in full detail together with, where appropriate, specific reference to and identity of the item in the registration statement to which it pertains. If more space is needed, full size insert sheets may be used.

The supplementary statement filed for the period ending October 24, 1970 is amended by addition of the following information.

Registrant participated in a meeting held before the Treasury Department on October 14, 1970 as an attorney appearing on behalf of foreign clients identified on the record and in the established course of procedure administered by the Treasury Department in enforcing the Antidumping Act of 1921, as amended. The Registrant is an Attorney at Law regularly engaged in practice before the Treasury Department. During the course of the anti-dumping proceedings before the Treasury Department, Registrant has consistently and clearly identified to the Treasury Department and the Bureau of Customs each and every client on behalf of whom representations have been made in the ordinary course of his contacts made both with the Treasury Department and the Bureau of Customs in the course of investigations pursuant to the Anti-dumping Act. Accordingly, Registrant feels that his contacts at meetings with these agencies fall clearly within the language of the exemptions set forth in Section 3(g) of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended.

The undersigned swear(s) or affirm(s) that he has (they have) read the information set forth in this amendment and that he is (they are) familiar with the contents thereof and that such contents are in their entirety true and accurate to the best of his (their) knowledge and belief.

(Both copies of this amendment shall be signed and sworn to before a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths by the agent, if the registrant is an individual, or by a majority of those partners, officers, directors or persons performing similar functions who are in the United States, if the registrant is an organization.)
